The Starlets bend over backwards to put on a good half time show at the Kimball game.

Karin Grant says, "I didn't want to make an "A" anyway."

DeAnn Woodruff, Joanna Jones, Sherian Tucker go punk rock.

Beth Billings thinks Forester's nachos are finger lickin' good.

Cindy Perez asks, "Who's that new guy?"

ALMA MATER

Hail, Samuell High!
Hail, Samuell High!
This song to thee
we sing.
We pledge to thee
our loyalty
As loud our praises
ring.
For always to the Gold and Blue
Our hearts will still be true.
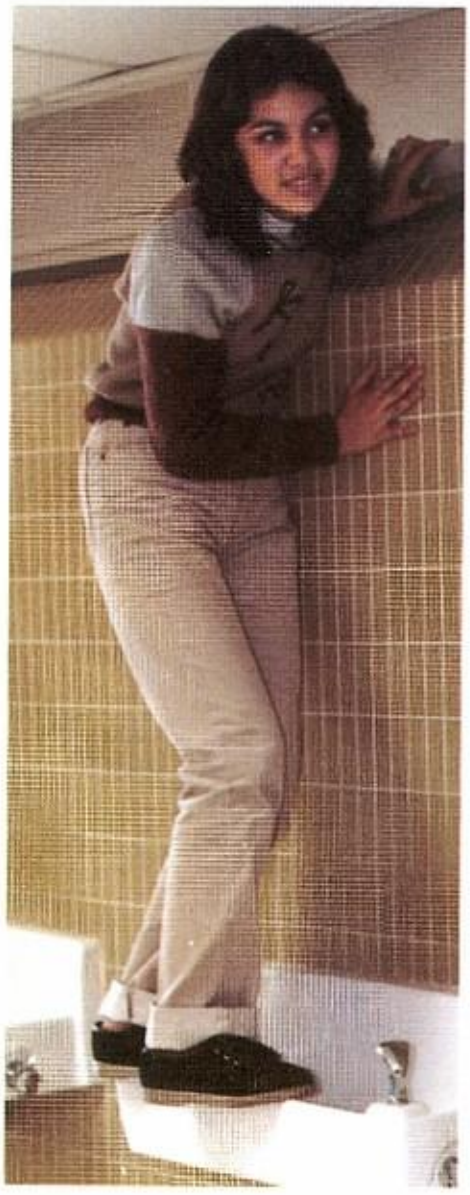
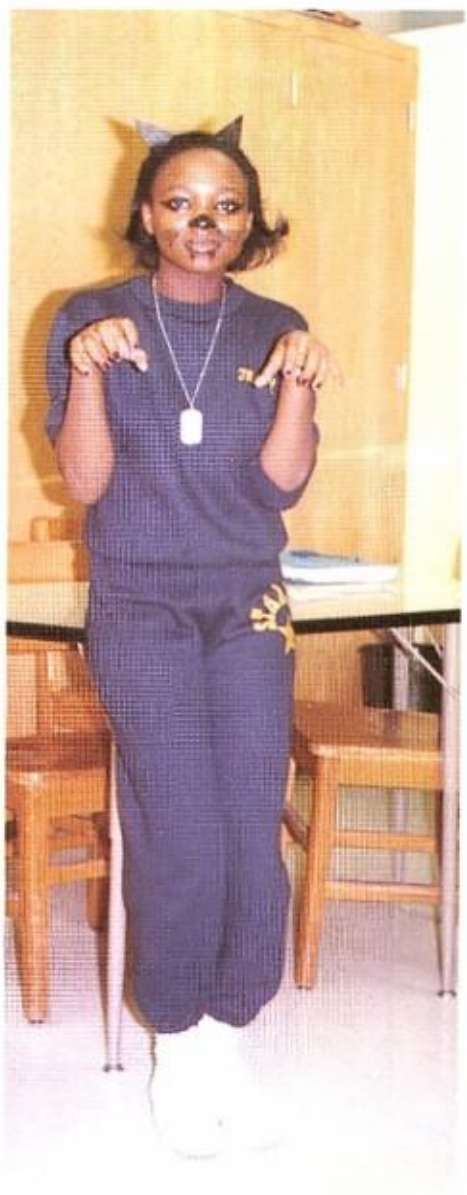
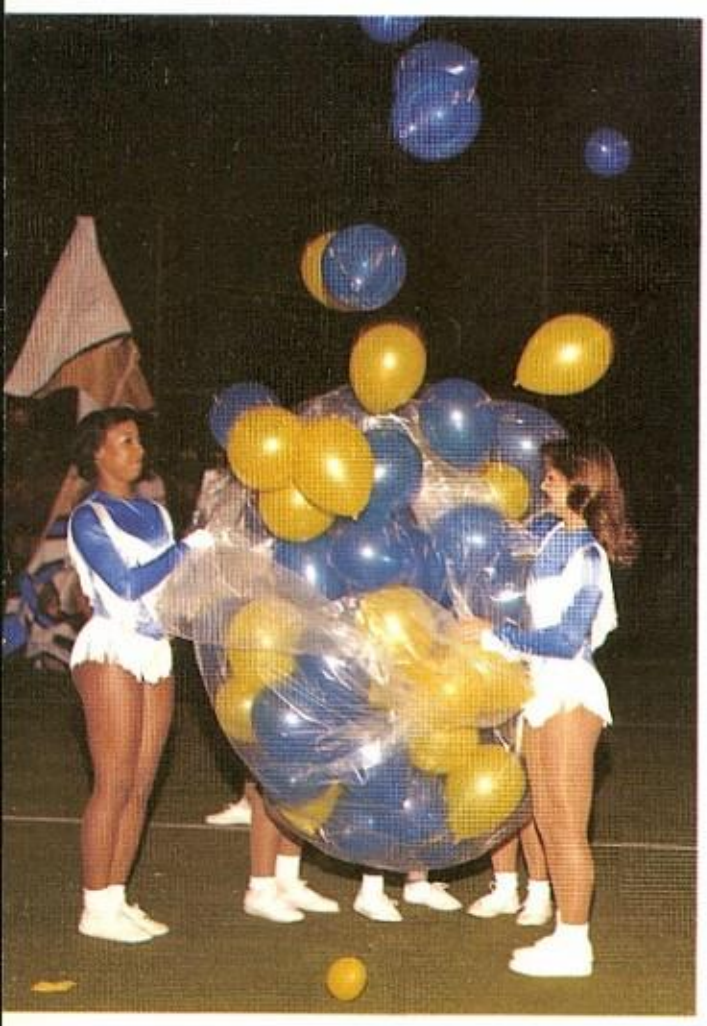
As fighting Spartans
we will cry
Our love for Samuell
High.



Mayra Montalvo is caught eavesdropping again.

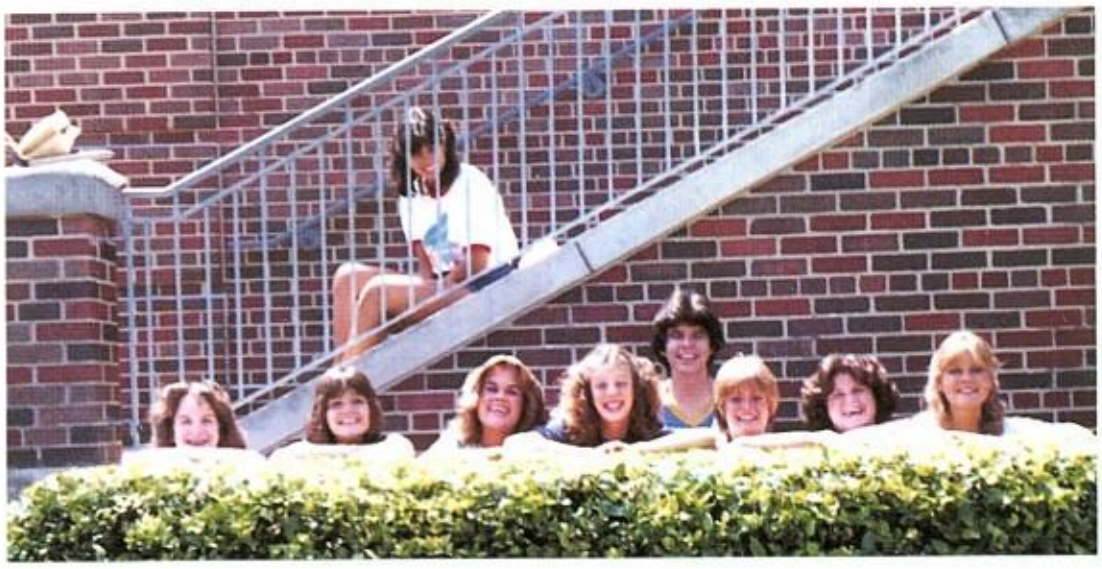


Mary Franklin "cats" around on Halloween.



Mary Garrett and Kellie Pannell release balloons at the Homecoming game.

Mitchell Mills, Mark Presley, and Doug Tramel are always fired up and ready.



The 1982 TORCH staff always hedges a little.

The banner team ends their pom-pom routine with a pyramid.

Melinda Paiz, Norma Johnson, Charlotte Stevenson and Jennae Brown work on research papers in the library.

FIGHT SONG

Fight Spartans, right down the field
Until we score that victory.
FIGHT! FIGHT!
Fight Spartans, and never yield
Our pledge of pride and loyalty.
RAH! RAH!
To our colors of Gold and Blue
We ever shall be true.
GO, SPARTANS, GO!
Go crashing through that line
And we will cheer you all the time!

Enthusiasm, involvement, room 117, The Boyfriend, the phase elective English program, Blithe Spirit, Razz-Ma-Tazz, Starlets, Barefoot in the Park, and Blue Jackets are a unique part of being a Spartan.

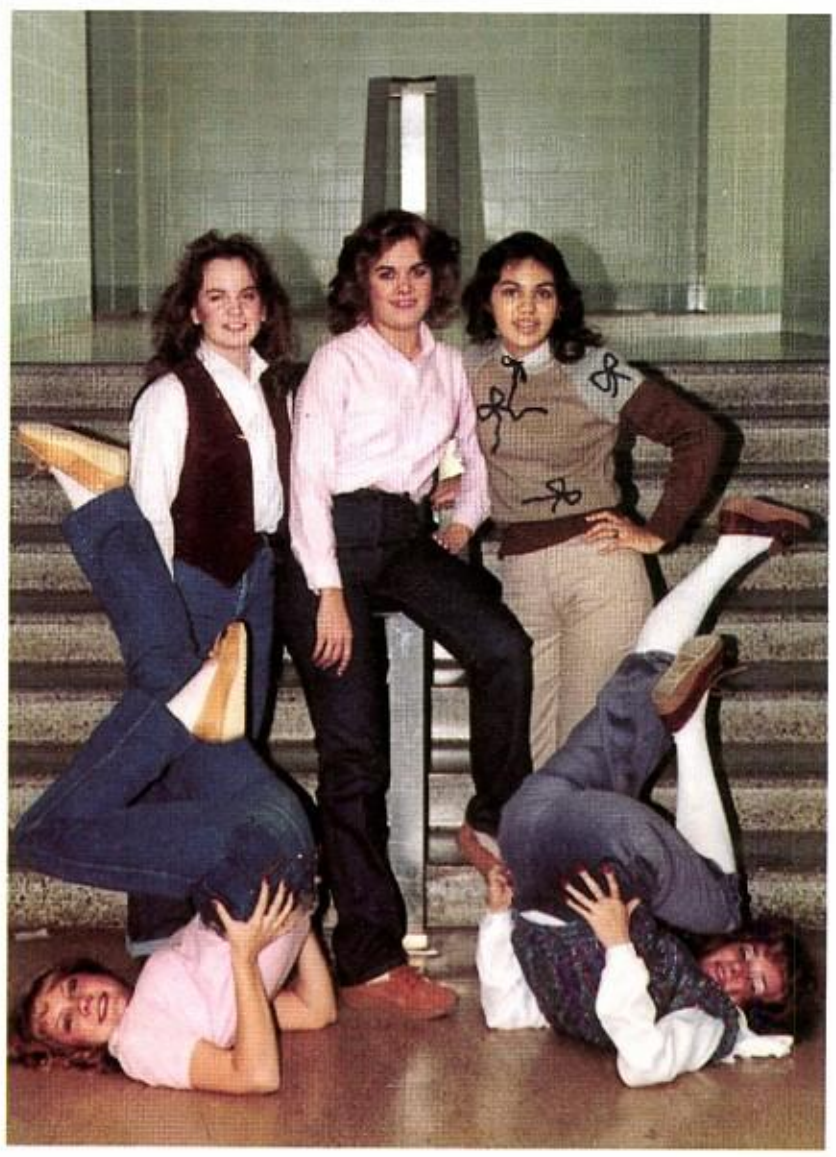
Dona Geron has Betty Davis eyes.

Margo Powell gets kinky for Razz-Ma-Tazz.

The treble choir practices "The Chocolate Burro" for the Christmas Festival.

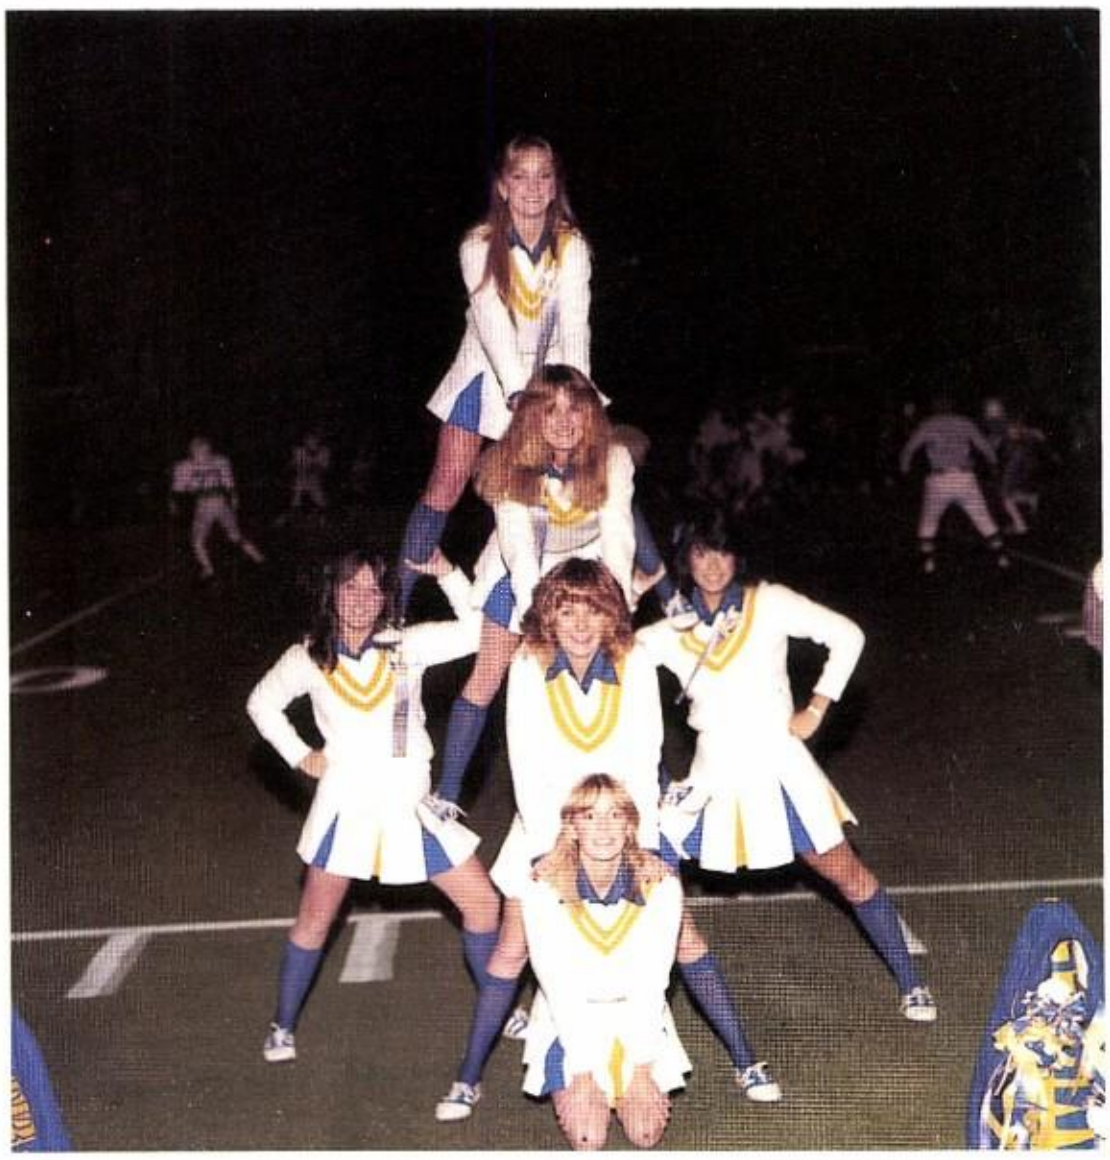
Sandi Dreer has been Calvinized.

Charles Robertson introduces the band at the Skyline pep assembly.



Kim Cade, Donna Wilson, Maureen Knapp, Mayra Montalvo, and Julia Payne are carried away with preppy day.

Brenda Corder and Steve Gustafson take English seriously.



The Varsity Cheerleaders are on top!

The band plays, "Hang 'em High" at the Kimball game.

Is it windy out, Kandy Herring?

Curtis Arnold is just not the same without his Skoal.

Change is characteristic of the 1980's. All around us change is taking place: in school, entertainment, politics, and within ourselves.

Some of the major differences Samuell students have witnessed are the altered grading and requirement system demanding twenty-one instead of nineteen credits. These requirements are making an impact on the life of the entering freshmen by making early graduation difficult and offering harder academic courses. Samuell also has a new program, the secondary unit for the deaf which offers an alternative learning situation for secondary deaf students, academic courses, vocational adjustment and independent living.

Stacy McGibboney and Patricia Cross plan for the future in Home Furnishings.

Kay Woodruff is in the hall again.

David Miller, Jeff Boyd, Billy Lile, Mitchell Mills, and Bobby Pitts gives a Texas size Howdy at the Howdy Dance.

Earl Few, Gayla Scott, Shelia Jenkins, and Kenneth Record are "Family!"

Cathy Huey has Spartan Fever!

Kelly White, Mike Baker, and Doug Tramel help Mark Presley get high with the world's largest joint.

Lisa Hoppert realizes that isn't the girls restroom.

Tracy Cantwell, Thea Sneed, Jill Granberry, and Beth Hairgrove hang around at the Fair.

Personal views affect daily life and reflect the versatile choice of entertainment. The "far out" discotheques have given way to western bands and rock-and-roll combos. This music is designed to keep in step with the times.

The era responsible for the western look, punk, and new wave fashions has returned to the preppy look. The preppy look is taking Samuell by storm with blazers, pullover sweaters, polo shirts, and izods. These clothes exemplify the returning conservative political viewpoints of many Samuell students.

The students of Samuell have added variety to their school by incorporating many new ideas. Preppy day brought izods into Samuell and the Halloween Dance was the first of its kind. Outside Samuell, the "Pepsi Generation" supplanted the "Peppers" as America's favorite soft drink.

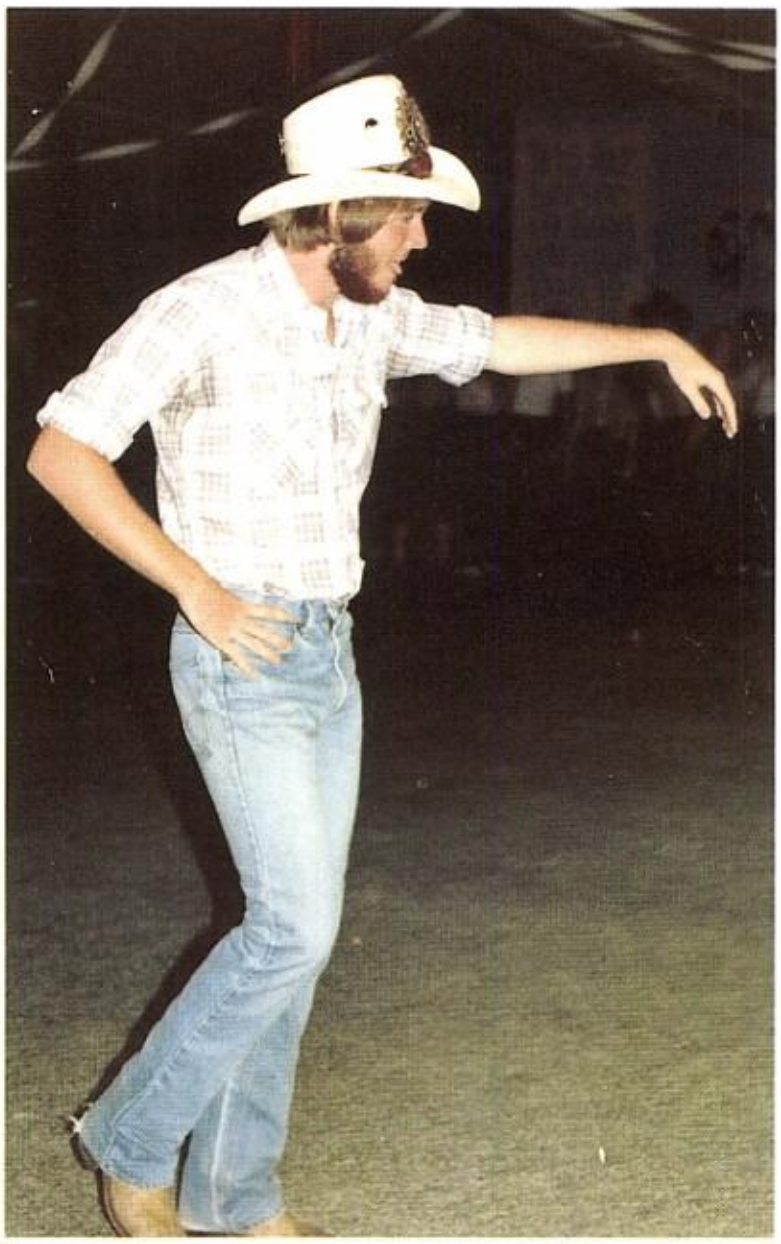
Everyone is glad when 3:08 rolls around.

Terry Russell tries to get votes for Best Dressed.

Lisa BeLew jumps at the chance to be in Razz-Ma-Tazz.

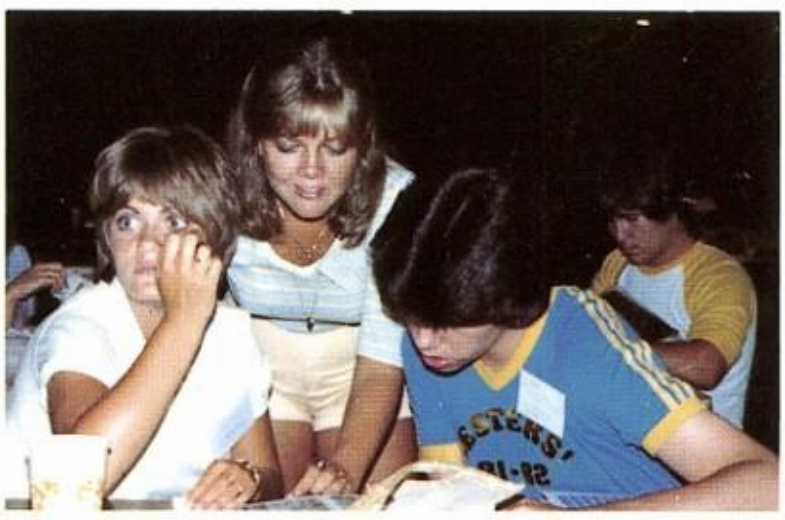
Samuell students have altered their sloppy image to sharp, well dressed individuals sporting styled hair cuts. These improvements mark a change in how Samuell students view themselves and those around them. The political issues of today have forced students to air their opinions on draft registration. Most Samuell students have exhibited positive attitudes in this step toward adulthood.

People are changing to keep up with the ever increasing pressures and needs of today. Samuell is also adapting to meet the needs and requirements of its many students. Modification and further growth are echoed throughout the world.



Donnie Gardner has his own way of saying "Howdy!"

Ruben Jenkins and Frank Haggerty pep up the Varsity before the Spruce game.



Karin Grant, Kim Cade, and Steve Baugh work hard planning the annual.

Fall by design

Spartans Frolic Through Fall

From enrollment to exams, Samuell students have led an active and hectic existence. They have performed in Blithe Spirit and Razz-Ma-Tazz; attended varsity, junior varsity, and freshmen football games, girl's varsity and junior varsity volleyball and basketball games; watched cross country track meets; and donated much of their time to other extracurricular activities. Samuell students "cotton eye joe'd" at the Howdy Dance, "spooked out" at the Halloween Dance, and "two-stepped" at the Christmas Dance. Choir and band members performed at the annual Christmas assembly and festival along with neighboring school choirs. Students enjoyed Fair Day, Thanksgiving, and Christmas vacations immensely.

What's a nice girl like Jana Fuller doing with two guys like Ronald Martin and Derrell Barksdale.

Rob Stokes dreams of the future with some help from Mike Baker.

Beth Hairgrove decorates for Homecoming.

When Debi Rodriguez talks, Linda Clinkscales and Karen Gunstanson listen.

Mark Walker picks up his 1981 TORCH from Ms. Adams.

The cheerleaders, banner team, and football team sing the school song at the South Garland game.

Sheila Floyd checks it out in the library.

Johnny Bryant and Bobby Pitts get revenge during Razz-Ma-Tazz.

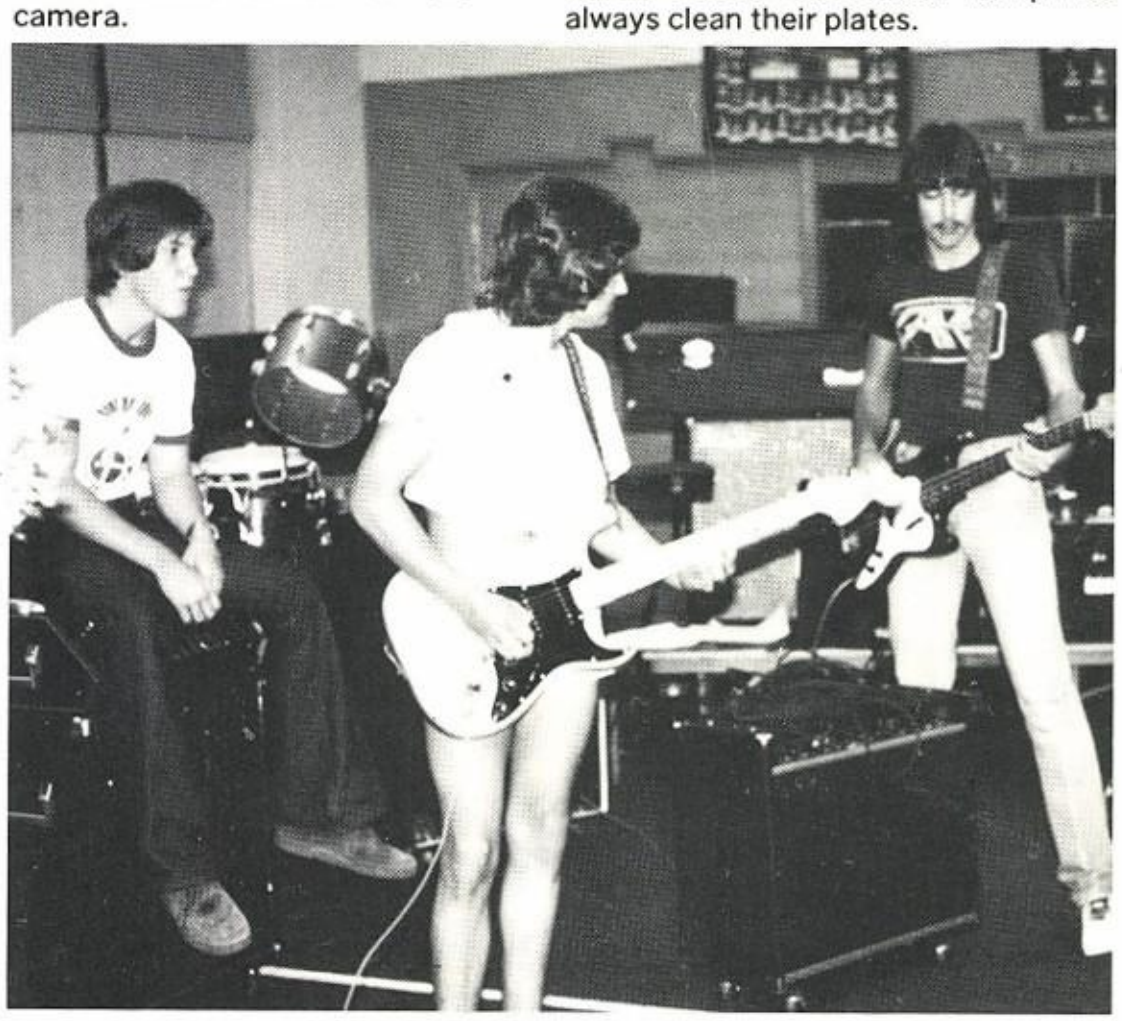
Karen Carder and Kristi Humphries always clean their plates.

Dennis Hall and Brian Burns play Mr. Fix-it in metal shop.



Dale Walker watches as Miles Seaman and Kevin Potter freak out.

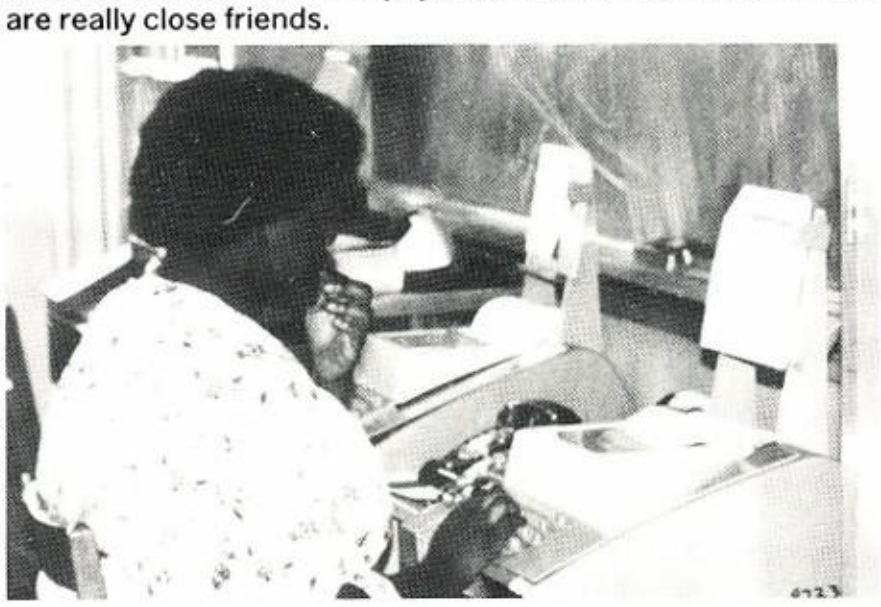
Nicki Strange and Kathy Black read a love letter on the way to class.

Blue Jackets line up to welcome the mighty Spartans on the field.

Mark Presley steals a pass away from Scotty Scott.

The JESTERS! are just one big happy family?

Curtis Miller, Kathleen Murphy, Rob Stokes, and Karen Kristof are really close friends.



Sandra Robinson works on a problem in computer math.

Kevin Sample, Terry Russell, and Luther LeBlanc welcome winter with open arms.

The Starlets end their routine to Dallas with style.

Jeff Kirkwood, Scott Dunn, Damon Johnston, and Carlos Amador are spaced out!

Tracy York, Dei Smith, and Milinda Grice rehearse for Blithe Spirit.

Monya Mathis slides into fall.

Beverly Owens, Debra Taylor, LaTonnya Jeffery, FeFe Bluitt, K. K. Jeffery and Helen Freeman raise their hands in the Mesquite pep rally.

Bubba LaMont is right in style.

Freshmen by design

The Freshmen class of 1982 is easily the largest of the four classes with 432 students. These new Spartans traipsed down the corridors happily looking for nonexistent rooms and willingly paid for the use of the spacious but mysterious swimming pool and elevator. Soon the freshmen found themsevles at ease with their surroundings and their peers. As they grew more comfortable with Samuell and themselves they showed their true merit.

Principal Harold J. Filgo

To the Students Of W. W. Samuell High School

As I complete my second year as your principal, I can look back at some fond memories and some pleasant friendships. I have been accepted in the community and I have enjoyed the opportunity to work with the community leaders.

My concern for the student body is that each student accept a responsibility for not only the actions of the individual but also the actions of the group. As a group, we improve when the individuals within the group are willing to work toward a better school and a better community. I'm seeing steps in this direction and I hope the improvement can continue.

W. W. Samuell High School is a great place because of the people who have been a part of its history and those who are a part of its present who will become a part of its past. You have worked to keep the tradition alive and your pride in your school and community will keep this a fine school for the years to come. In addition, the community will be better because of your presence.

Sincerely,

Harold J. Filgo

In Dedication to Ms. Velma Scott

The dedication of the yearbook was a difficult and important decision for Seniors and the TORCH staff. Each year candidates are chosen and ultimately voted on outstanding teaching ability, service to students, and a good rapport with fellow teachers and students were considered. The 1982 yearbook dedicatee was a special person who influenced many people's lives. She was described as a person "dedicated to the profession of teaching" and she completed her fortieth year of her teaching career — twenty-six of which have been at Samuell. The TORCH staff was proud and honored to dedicate the annual to a teacher respected by students, peers, and administrators — Ms. Velma Scott.
